MILWAUKEE POLICE SENSITIVE CRIMES COLD HIT UNIT HELPS CONVICT SERIAL RAPIST

WHAT: Media availability for Milwaukee Police Detective Lori Gaglione and Milwaukee Assistant District Attorney Jeff Greipp

WHEN: 10:30 a.m. TODAY, Monday, June 26, 2006

WHERE: Room 707, Milwaukee Police Administration Building, 749 W. State Street

DETAILS: Work by the Milwaukee Police Department's Sensitive Crimes Cold Hit Unit in concert with the Milwaukee County District Attorney's Office and the Sexual Assault Treatment Center at Aurora Sinai Medical Center, resulted in the arrest and conviction of a serial rapist who terrorized women in the city of Milwaukee for two years.

Antonio Hunter was sentenced Friday, June 23, 2006 to 45 years in prison for one count of sexual assault of a child and three counts of second-degree sexual assault. Hunter is a serial rapist who attacked women between 2000 and 2002.

Milwaukee Police Detectives were able to match up stored DNA given by felons as part of the state's database with a database of unsolved sexual assaults. Detective Gaglione and ADA Greipp will discuss the Hunter case and the closure it gave his victims.
